Our Sight once clouded and confused, will clear and we will be able to perceive reality and recognize truth.

How Al-Anon Works for Family and Friends of Alcoholics page 20
The drama of other people's problems can be very distracting, especially when those people are alcoholics. But in Al-Anon we discover that the problem does not lie solely within another person; the problem is also within us. The behavior of an alcoholic friend, spouse, child, sibling, employer, or parent may have led us to Al-Anon, but we soon realize that our own thinking has become distorted. Al-Anon helps us to stop wasting time trying to change the things over which we have no control and to put our efforts to work where we do have some power – over our own lives.
